

X-mas sends wrong message

The Greek Chi explanation is ridiculous. Are we speaking Greek here in the US?

Keep the Christ in Christmas! No need to abbreviate/ speak in tongues while speaking or writing his name. It is Christ not X or Chi. Anything other than that is at the least laziness.

As Christians, saying or writing x-mas sends a message to the anti-Christ crowd that it doesn't matter to us as well.